GEN. BUTLER ON MASSACHUSETTS CHARITIES.

The following is an extract from a speech recently made at Charlestown, Mass., by Gen. Butler:

"According to the statistics furnished by the present State Legislature, as a report of their own committee, it is more dangerous to spend a year in a Massachusetts almshouse than it would have been to have let the charge of the Zouaves at Magenta. I see that this statement strikes some of you almost with dread. Let me repeat. There was a larger proportion of the regiment which led the attack of the battle at Solferino came out from the battle, than there were of the paupers of 1858 who came out alive from the State almshouses of Massachusetts. [Sensation.] Allow me to give you the figures. How many was the average number of paupers in the State almshouses during the year 1858? Twenty-seven hundred and some odd. How many died in the year ending October, 1858? Six hundred and sixty six—one in every four. Every fourth man, woman and child that went into the State almshouses of Massachusetts died and was buried in the Potter's field of a paupers' burying ground. Three hundred and forty-one children, under the age of five years, died in those charnel houses, and the physician of one of these houses says he does not expect to rear but three per cent. of the children brought there under one year old! Three out of a hundred—all the other ninety-seven go to a nameless grave.

Why this whole commonwealth felt outraged because there came a report from Kansas that six or eight men had been killed; and yet our mothers and wives and daughters scoured the country for old clothes and other comforts to send the people of that Territory. [Laughter.] In the same year three hundred and odd children, of Massachusetts soil, died like dogs in a kennel in our own almshouses, while we were weeping over the imaginary wrongs of Kansas! [Cheers.] Again I ask, my friends, is it not time that we look at home? Where is Mrs. Stowe? Where is Greeley in the Tribune? Where is the extra philanthropy of the humanitarians? Where is that denouncer of great and good men, Weddell Phillips? Where are all these men who regulate the affairs of the people afar off? Is there not ample room for their charities here at home? One hundred and sixty-five children dying at Bridgewater; one hundred and fifteen at Tewksbury, and one hundred and one at Munson! Forty infants dead in two months! Oh! but they were white children. [Laughter.] Why look after them? I do not wish to harrow your feelings further by going into statistics. I only ask you if it is not time we ceased to look after the wrongs of the negroes at the South, and look a little after the people at home? But if any know nothing friend of mine will say that is of no consequence, that these people, or the larger portion of them, were merely Irish paupers, to him I answer, that the great majority of them were native born citizens of Massachusetts, entitled to every protection that Massachusetts gives to any of her citizens, [applause,] and the very largest proportion of them born on this continent. If I am told that, 'Oh, these were the old, the infirm, and the sick,' I have to say of these 661, 341—more than half—were under five years of age; immortal souls brought into this world and placed in the care of Massachusetts charity, Massachusetts philanthropy; and they have gone to God who gave them, and it is for us to render an account for them."

SENATOR SHERMAN ON THE SITUATION.

A conversation was held by a Herald reporter recently with Senator John Sherman on his views of political matters. In regard to reconstruction, the Senator holds that the question is settled, without further legislation, by the election of General Grant. He believes that specie payment, by increasing the value of greenbacks, should be the objective point of all financial manœuvres. Unless Washington is made more accessible by railroads he believes the capital will be removed within five years.

WHAT HE SAID OF RECONSTRUCTION.

In any further discussion of reconstruction I would myself favor the utmost liberality toward the South, would relieve it of all forms of disability, provided only it gives protection to the people within its limits; but if murder for political opinion is to go on as it has, if the spirit of disaffection to laws properly made is to prevail there, the only safety is in the other course. But, as I have said, the subject is not likely to be brought up. Grant's election is a resting place.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.

We must, said the Senator, have universal suffrage as a foundation stone over the whole country, and Congress ought to submit an amendment to the States with that idea.

His financial views are crude, and not worth reproducing. He is a small specimen of a statesman.

MRS. HARRIET BEECHER STOWE CONVERTED.—We hear from Florida that Mrs. Beecher Stowe, the authoress of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," who a year or two ago bought a place on the St. John's river near Jacksonville, says she wants to live long enough to write another book to correct the mistakes of "Uncle Tom," and show that a great blunder was committed when slavery was abolished. From original condition of sentimental attachment to the negro she has lapsed into a state of unconquerable dislike and aversion. She will not have them about her, either in-doors or out. She turned them all off her place, and allows no one with a black skin to approach her. We are told that an acquaintance of ours sought to send her a message by a black stewardess on board a steamboat, but she refused to allow the negro to approach her. Her mind, as we have been credibly informed, is very much inflamed against the negro; and this, probably, from comparing their efficiency and aptitude as laborers and servants with that of the Northern whites. Her fancy picture of the African has been spoiled, and her sentimental affection has turned, in consequence, to violent aversion. Like Squeers, the milk of human sympathy in her bosom has all turned to curds and whey.—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph.

"Ah! how duth you like my moustache, Mith Laura?" lisped a dandy to a merry gal. "Oh! very much. It looks like the fur on the back of a caterpillar."

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1868.

COST OF THE NEW CODE—REFORM.

It is safe to say that litigation costs three times as much, under the "Code," as under our old Judiciary system. We speak here of the actual Court costs, and do not include the increased fees charged by lawyers, on account of the greater labor and complications of practice created by the new system of Practice. Any one may take up the "fee bill" and make the calculation for himself, and he will see that our estimate is not too large.

And this is a great evil and a grievous burden, that operates upon all classes of the people, without regard to political differences, and one that ought to be cured as promptly as possible. It seems to us that the practice of the law ought to be made to conform as nearly to the old cheap and safe system as may be under the Constitution, until the Constitution may be changed and the old system re-adopted. Let all this law of pleading in the Clerk's office and taking judgments before the Clerk, these motions and cross motions, and notices and docketing judgments, and other tom foolery, be abolished, and the simple system of the past prevail as near as possible. This new fangled Code may suit a commercial community like New York, where they want a judgment in a few hours; but it does not suit the simple, straight forward dignity and character of North Carolina.

Then just see what this Code system is costing the people. "Judges" Rodman and Tourgee, and Victor C. Barringer, nice and fit associates, get $600 per month to do what? Why, simply to cut up a printed copy of the New York Code and change the names, dates, &c., to and for North Carolina! Yes, for this they get $600, besides Clerk hire, lights, fuel, stationery, &c., &c. What a nuisance! Why, if we are to have the New York Code, say so and be done with it. If the Legislature don't believe all this is so, let them have a Committee and examine the lawyers, including "Judge" Rodman, and they will learn that what we say is substantially correct. The Radicals are interested in this matter as well as other folks. Won't they aid in the matter?—Can't some little good come out of this Nazareth? We doubt it. They would not agree to what is right in this behalf, for fear some decent man might be gratified. Well, we guess the lawyers, and, especially, the "higher ones," don't care; the new system pays bigger fees!

BLACK-MAIL.

Mr. Major General Willie D. Jones (Heavens! what a "lengthy caudal appendage" our cat hath,) intimated, in the Senate, on Monday, with a degree of waspishness that was very malist-ic, (pardon the pun,) that the Sentinel had charged bribery and corruption upon Legislators. Certainly we have not, within the two days of our Editorial existence, and a careful reading of the Sentinel, under its late auspices, enables us to affirm that the paper itself has made no such direct and distinct allegation.—The Major General aforesaid was pleased further to intimate, with that Senatorial dignity which sets on him with equal grace with his clustering martial laurels, that such an allegation, on the part of the Sentinel, was equivalent to the non-existence of the facts charged. On behalf of our retiring predecessors, we admonish the Major-General that they will attend, in retaliation, on the first occasion when he reviews his "loil" battallions, and — laugh at him!

No,—no such charge has been made in this paper. We prefer no such allegation, totidem verbis. Being outsiders, we know nothing, positively, in the premises. All that we are cognizant of, is the fact, that the atmosphere is laden with insinuations, —that rumors are as plenty as blackberries,—and it is both a natural and metaphorical probability, that where there is so much smoke, there must be some fire.—Besides, when a Senator—a very clever Senator, too, for one of his political stripe,—a Radical Senator,—declares, with emphasis, upon the floor of the Senate, that he can prove that venality has been practiced and votes or influence bought and paid for "with dollars and cents," we are constrained to believe that he can do what he promises, and to wish him God speed in smoking out the rascals, whoever they may be!

It is a sad spectacle and an unprecedented one, that there should be, in a North Carolina Legislature, any ground, even the slightest, upon which to base a demand for such investigations, as that which has been instituted. The spirits of the incorruptible patriots, who once graced those halls, may well hang indignant and affrighted over the scene, and all men, now, who are concerned for the good name of the State, hang their heads in humiliation. It has been reserved for the advent of Radicalism and carpet-baggery that such suspicions should come over us like a dark cloud and a damning blight.

Let the inquest proceed; let it be conducted with a stern, honest and unyielding rigor; let the truth come out, though the stars fall. We shall rejoice if all the ill-omened reports that vex the ears of men be dissipated and dispelled. It will be a great relief to know that North Carolina has not entirely fallen from her high estate, though we are admonished that, when once a downward step is taken, the rest of the descent is easy.

"————Facilis descensus Averni."

If the investigation should disclose guilt, we promise to assist in the erection of its pillory so high, that it may be seen of all men!

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT

This tribunal is now sitting in this City, Chief Justice Chase is absent, and Judge Brooks, of the District Court, presides alone.

The dockets, we learn, are heavy, but the "whiskey" docket is not as large as at the last term, but large enough now in all conscience. There are but few prosecutions, except for violations of the Internal Revenue Law. This is passing strange. Perjuries have been as common as blackberries since the war, in matters arising within the jurisdiction of the Federal Court, and yet we rarely hear of such a thing as a prosecution for perjury. We reckon that "Judge" Starbuck, the District Attorney, don't like to think of such a thing. We wonder if he ever thinks of a presentment made by the Grand Jury of the U. S. Court, here, in the Summer of 1867, in which he figured as the party accused of swearing too freely about his "loyalty" during the war, and as to what he did, and did not do, during that same time! Ah! this little matter will stick to Starbuck as long as he lives. Let him pass. It is said he don't know any law, and this may account for the strange and manifestly false construction he placed upon the "Test Oath" prescribed by Congress.

The Civil docket of this Court is crowded with suits by non resident creditors against our impoverished and distressed people. They are sued in this State by the wholesale, in order to avoid the "stay law" of the State, while the people of the State cannot, by reason of the "stay law," collect what is due them; and, hence, many of them are crushed and ruined under the Marshal's inexorable hammer. This is administering justice according to law, and in mercy, with a vengeance!

Judge Brooks, we are gratified to learn, is making a better Judge than it was at first supposed he would. It is said that he, too, don't know much law, but he is honest and means to do right. He and the lawyers get on smoothly, and he is a long ways superior to many ignoramuses who occupy the places of Judges in our State.

WHAT WE SAID TO A DEMOCRAT.

A Democratic friend, when he heard that the present Editor had purchased the Sentinel, said that the Democracy were afraid to trust us, for fear that we should abuse them.

We replied: "Dr., we owe your party no apology for what we have said. As one is to five hundred thousand, so are the hard words we may have spoken about Democracy to the hard words they have spoken of us. Besides, the questions about which we differed are all settled. Bank, Tariff and Secession are all settled; and for us to discuss and divide upon them, now, is as idle and unavailing as to discuss and divide upon the color of the last horse shod at Tubal Cain's black smith shop, before the flood! Besides, we have made our peace with the Democracy. When we were first a candidate for Congress, we got only one vote in Warren and eleven in Nash. The last time we were a candidate, we carried Nash overwhelmingly, and there were only seven votes cast against us in Warren!"

The Dr. surrendered.

THE IMMIGRATION MEETING AT GOLDSBORO.—The adjourned meeting of the Immigration Convention was held in Goldsboro on Saturday, was largely attended, and was harmonious in its deliberations. Dr. S. S. Satchwell presided. Eighteen counties were represented. The Messenger, in chronicling the results of the meeting, says:

"A revolution in the farming interests of the country has long been needed, and we would be gratified to know that the Southern States, generally, had taken the same steps for the importation of foreign labor that North Carolina has done. Let all the land owners but adopt this system and in a short time they will see the beneficial results accruing therefrom, both socially and pecuniarily.

At the meeting held on Saturday, a permanent association was formed, to be called the "Eastern North Carolina Immigration Association," when the following named gentlemen were elected as permanent officers of the Convention, viz: Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of New Hanover, President; Jas. S. Woodard, of Wilson, and Thos. H. Atkinson, of Johnston, Vice Presidents; Jordan Stone, of Halifax, Corresponding and Recording Secretary; E. B. Borden, of Wayne, Treasurer; Hon. W. T. Dortch, of Wayne, Dr. A. J. DeRossett, and Col. S. L. Fremont, of New Hanover, Executive Committee.

A Constitution was also adopted, which, together with the proceedings, will appear in to morrow's issue. About thirty prominent gentlemen signed the articles and paid their initiation fee. The Association is now a permanent institution, and agents will immediately be dispatched to Europe for the purpose of securing reliable labor for the farmers of the State."

SEVENTH DISTRICT.—The Asheville News, alluding to the gratifying result of the Congressional election in this District, expresses itself as greatly amused at the allegation of Jacobin papers, that one hundred Radical voters were driven from the polls at Asheville, by the riot. It says:

"The riot did not occur at the polls at all, and an hour after the riot was over a number of negroes returned. There was not a man, white or black, driven from the polls.

We have heard from good authority that in Polk county a number of Radical votes were polled with Jones' name cut off, but the managers decided that those who voted them no doubt intended to vote for Jones and so counted them. If the election is to turn upon the votes that were not cast, we think Durham is sure of his seat in Congress by about 1000 majority."

JUDGE CHASE'S ORDER.—The very proper and wise order made by Judge Chase in the United States Circuit Court in this city relieving jurors from the iron-clad oath has been favorably received by leading Radical organs of the North. The New York Times says "the general judgment of the public will approve this action and regard it as the harbinger of peace." Per contra, Forney is very much disgusted with the course of the Chief Justice, and declares that it is the first step towards the acquittal of Mr. Davis. There could be no better attestation of the propriety and justice of the act than its denunciation by Forney. The Chief Justice ought to be profoundly obliged to him.—Rich. Dispatch.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 1, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

The following bills came from Committees with favorable reports, viz:

Bill to consolidate the Atlantic & North Carolina and the North Carolina Railroad Companies;

Bill in reference to procuring licenses to practice law;

Bill concerning Entry Takers;

Bill to prohibit obstructions being placed in Rock Fish Creek;

Bill in favor of building public mills;

Bill to lay off and establish Dare county;

Bill to amend an act concerning the government of Counties;

Bill to protect a certain class of citizens who rented lands from the U. S. Treasury Agents.

A message was received from the House, transmitting the following bills, which were referred to appropriate Committees, viz:

Bill for the relief of J. S. White, former Sheriff of Gaston County;

Bill to incorporate the Madrine Mining Company;

Bill authorizing the Commissioners of certain counties to issue bonds;

Bill for the relief of Jas. Candler, Sheriff of Macon county.

BILLS.

By Mr Beeman: A bill to incorporate Beaver Dam Lodge, in the county of Anson. Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

By Mr. Bellamy: A bill to amend Chap. 4; Section 566, of the Code of Civil Procedure. Referred to the Committee on Salaries and Fees.

By Mr. Love: A bill to repeal chap. 54 of the laws of 1866-'67, relating to the common law right of dower. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Mr. Love: A bill in relation to the Western Turnpike Road. Referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

By Mr. Richardson: A bill to amend the charter of the Western Railroad Company. Ordered to be printed, referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

By Mr. Blythe: A bill to repeal sec. 279, chap. 2, title 12, of the Code of Civil Procedure. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Mr. Graham: The following resolution:

Resolved, That the Public Treasurer be requested to report to the Senate the names of the persons to whom he sold one hundred and eighty thousand dollars in bonds of the North Carolina Railroad Company, paid by that Company to the State on the 10th of October, as dividends; from whom proposals were received, and the prices offered, and what were the exigencies of the Treasury, which did not allow him to reject the bids.

Mr. Graham said: Mr. President, I see in the report of the Public Treasurer, this statement: "One hundred and eighty thousand in bonds of the North Carolina Railroad Company were paid by that Company to the State, on the 10th of October.—I lost no time in endeavoring to sell them. Failing to obtain an eligible offer at private sale, I advertised for sealed proposals to be opened at my office, on the 11th day of November, 1868. The bids aggregated $117,600. The exigencies of the Treasury did not allow me to reject these bids."

These bonds were 8 per cent mortgage bonds, exempt from State and Federal taxation. The property of the N. C. R. R. Co., I understand, is estimated at five or six millions of dollars; a mortgage has been executed for $800,00 to secure the payment of the bonds when due, and provision made for a sinking fund, each year, from the earnings of the Road, for this purpose. I also learn that only $486,000, of bonds have actually been issued. It is reported that the Treasurer, with the exception of $4000, sold these bonds for 65 cents on the dollar. It is due to the people, and to that officer, that we should have a full explanation of the matter, and the exigencies, which required him to submit to such a shave, fully stated. If our Treasury was so empty as to require the money at once, we have but a poor prospect of carrying on our Government for the next year and meeting our obligations. If we should see a private individual selling good bonds at such a discount, we would suspect that he was nearly, if not quite, bankrupt. I hope this is not the case with the State of North Carolina. I make no charge against the Public Treasurer, and introduce this resolution to give him an opportunity to vindicate his action. But I must state that I think it was an unfortunate trade, on the part of North Carolina, as these same bonds cannot now be bought for 80 cents in the dollar.

The resolution was adopted.

By Mr. Sweet: A resolution tendering the use of the Senate Chamber to the Presidential Electors, after 12 o'clock to-morrow; which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Robbins, the Senate agreed, when it adjourned, to meet to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Martindale offered a resolution in reference to an article, which appeared in the Raleigh Sentinel, of to-day. ("Judge Story said: If ever the day should come, when the best talent and best virtues should be driven from office and place by intrigue or corruption or by the ostracism of the Press, or the still more unrelenting persecution of party, honest legislation would cease, &c.")

The resolution proposed to raise a Committee to inquire if Judge Story said so, and, if he did, was it true?

Mr. Sweet expressed his surprise at the introduction of the resolutions. He thought they should be stamped with the condemnation of every Senator on the floor. They were calculated to bring the investigation of the charges of corruption into ridicule and contempt, and, in this way, cripple the Committee in its effort to expose corruption. It was too much like cracking a joke at a funeral.

After he had pledged his word, as a gentleman and a Senator, to locate bribery, it is beneath the dignity of this body to tolerate such an attempt to belittle the investigation, and he would repeat again, in the most emphatic terms, that he could establish, beyond a doubt, the charges contained in those resolutions on bribery.

Mr. Davis desired to know if the Senator from Craven intimated that any Senator on the floor had been guilty of the charges specified in the resolutions.

Mr. Sweet said he did not intend to expose any of the facts in the possession of the Committee. In fact, there would be no way of getting hold of them, until they came out in proper form, as each member of the Committee would be required to take an oath of secrecy. He could say, for the benefit of the Senator from Montgomery, that they had not received any information, thus far, which would criminate him.

Mr. Robbins said he desired to express his admiration and approbation of the remarks made by the Senator from Craven. He was surprised that his friend from Martin should have introduced these resolutions and hoped that he would withdraw them. They may have been introduced in jest, but it was too serious a matter to jest about.—There are two things that cannot be trifled with,—one is the virtue of a woman and the other the honor of a man. He did not make these remarks, because he thought these resolutions reflected on him, but because they appeared to ridicule the resolutions which he introduced on yesterday.—There is something behind them. The scoundrels, who are guilty, are quaking in their shoes, but they cannot escape; they shall not escape that punishment which is due them.

Mr. Martindale said he did not intend to cast any reflection or odium on any Senator on the floor by introducing the resolution. The only object he had in view was to retaliate on the Sentinel.

After some further discussion, the resolution was withdrawn.

Mr. Stevens introduced a resolution, instructing the Committee on Privileges and Elections to investigate the charge in regard to the eligibility of the Senator from the 14th District, and to report at once.

Mr. Sweet opposed the resolution, on the ground that a general resolution, covering the same ground, was now in the hands of the Committee.

After some discussion, the resolution was laid on the table, on motion of Mr. Beeman.

SPECIAL ORDER:

Bill to incorporate the North Carolina Mutual Home Insurance Company.

The merits of the bill were discussed at some length, and, on motion of Mr. Davis, it was laid on the table, by a vote of yeas 21, nays 18.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow, at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, Dec. 1, 1868.

The House was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Shaver, of the House.

The Chair announced, in accordance with the motion to refer J. S. Leary's resolution on the removal of disabilities to a special Committee of five, the following gentlemen, to compose said Committee, viz: Messrs. Bowman, Hodnett, Estes, Leary and Long, of Richmond.

Mr. Barnett, from the Committee on Corporations, reported favorably upon the bill to incorporate the several acts in relation to the town of Salisbury.

Mr. Barnett moved to print. Carried.

By Mr. Seymour: A bill to change the name of the Pitt County Female Institute to the Aurora Female College. Referred.

By Mr. Ingram: A bill to amend the Constitution. Referred.

By Mr. Malone: A resolution, instructing the Code Commissioners to prepare, as soon as possible, a complete compilation of all the Charters, Acts and Resolutions in reference to the Public Works of the State, with a suitable index, &c.; and, also, that they be requested to prepare a bill prescribing the duties and obligations of the Superintendent of Public Works. Lies over.

By B. W. Morris, (colored,): A bill to amend 5th chapter Code of Civil Procedure. Referred.

By Mr. Estes: A resolution to raise a Joint Committee of five, with power to employ counsel and to send for persons and papers, to investigate the affairs of the Bank of North Carolina. Lies over.

The special order was then taken up, viz: The report of the majority of the Committee on Public Buildings, recommending the adoption of Mr. Seymour's resolution, reinstating the Supreme Court in their rooms.

Mr. French opposed the resolution. He said that in the Committee there was only one majority for the recommendation. If the Superintendent of Public Instruction had to vacate his office, the Auditor would have to be moved. It was necessary that those officers should remain where they were, in order that they might be near the Executive Office, with which they had constant business, and there were many gentlemen calling on business upon those officers. The message of the Governor had informed them that the Executive Mansion was at the service of the authorities. He did not see why the Supreme Court could not have rooms in that building.

Mr. Downing also opposed the resolution, and so did Mr. Sinclair.

Mr. Seymour said that he had introduced the resolution at the request of some members of the Supreme Court. The room in which the Court is now was well known to all to be in every particular unsuited to the purpose. Among some of the objections was that the Clerk had to occupy the same room, and there was no place to which the Judges could retire to consult, as was frequently the habit. The members of the Bar had continually occasion to refer to the books which were now placed over the heads of the Judges. As to the Governor's Mansion, there were several objections to it. Though the present Governor may not desire to occupy it, yet some future Governor might do so, and, in that case, another removal of the Court would be required.

Mr. Hougin, the Chairman of the House branch of the Committee, reiterated his former remarks upon the subject. He opposed the passage of the resolution.

Mr. French offered a substitute, authorizing the Committee to have rooms in the Executive Mansion prepared for the Supreme Court.

After considerable discussion, Mr. Estes said the best mode of dealing with this matter was to let it drop here, and, therefore, he moved to lay both the original and substitute on the table.

Mr. Estes withdrew the motion, in order to allow Mr. Robinson to make an explanation.

Mr. Robinson said he desired, as a member of the Joint Committee on Public Buildings, to make an explanation. He had attended all the meetings of that Committee, last session, except the last, which had been held just after he left for home, and immediately before the adjournment of this body. He desired the fact to be known that he was all the time opposed to changing or interfering, in any way, with the rooms so long occupied by the Supreme Court. He maintained that after the rooms had been set apart by a special act of the Legislature, the Committee, under a simple resolution, had no authority, whatever, to interfere, without first repealing that act. The Committee could, with the same propriety, order the Executive office to be removed to the third story of this building. For these reasons, he opposed the substitute of the gentleman from New Hanover, and favored the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. E. renewed his motion, and it was adopted.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Sinclair: A resolution empowering the Governor to remove, when necessary, magistrates, &c. Referred.

By the same: A resolution requesting our Representatives and Senators in Congress to endeavor to get an act through that body, relieving all the citizens of this State from the penalties of the 14th article. Referred to the Special Committee.

Mr. French moved that each Saturday, 12 o'clock, be set apart for the introduction of such resolutions.

Mr. Sinclair moved to lay the motion on the table, and Mr. F. called for the yeas and nays.

The call, being sustained, the Clerk called the roll and the vote stood, yeas 49, nays 37.

Mr. Foster moved to reconsider the vote.

J. S. Leary, (colored,) moved to lay that motion on the table.

Mr. French was allowed to explain his reason for making the motion.

Mr. Sinclair said it was useless for any one to endeavor to throw ridicule upon such resolutions. It was well for those who labored under no disabilities, or those who had been relieved, to laugh and make sport of them. But they should remember that they were trifling with some of the dearest hopes of many of the best citizens in the State. The time must, will and shall come, when all the citizens of our State shall enjoy equal rights and privileges.—The man who says "Let us have peace," will inaugurate such measures as will accomplish that end.

Mr. French disclaimed any intention of trying to throw ridicule upon such measures. His motion would not have that effect.

Mr. Pou said whether it was so intended or not, it would certainly have that effect.

Mr. Foster withdrew his motion to reconsider.

By Mr. Malone: A resolution raising a special Committee to inquire whether or not the Ku Klux have ceased to exist in the State. Lies over.

By Mr. Matheson: A resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to prepare a bill to allow the deposition of female witnesses to be taken in criminal cases, without attending Court. Referred.

Senate Resolution No. 11, authorizing the Superintendent of the Insane Asylum to insure the buildings of that institution in some Fire Insurance company, was, on motion of Mr. Bowman, referred.

House resolution, No. 18, introduced by Mr. Sinclair, and the substitute offered by Mr. Estes, in relation to a Revenue Bill, were next considered, when,

On motion of Mr. Estes, the substitute was adopted. [Published before.]

CALENDAR.

The bill to amend the Charter of the Green Swamp Co., was taken up, and, on motion of Mr. Estes, made the special order for Friday next, at 12½ o'clock.

Mr. Malone's resolution, directing the Finance Committee, if necessary, to report a bill, as soon as possible, enabling the State to secure the prompt payment of all interest due to the State from the bonds of the various Corporations, (published before,) was next reached and passed its second reading.

Mr. Estes moved to suspend the rules and take up Mr. Malone's resolution in reference to Ku Klux, and that he, (Mr. Malone,) and the gentlemen from Anson, (Mr. Ingram,) be selected as the special Committee.

Mr. Bowman moved an amendment, that the said Committee be instructed to make a report early to-morrow morning.

Mr. Estes accepted the amendment.

House resolution No. 31, (introduced by Mr. Vest,) that the Senators and Representatives from this State in Congress be requested to have alterations made in the laws, so that a poor man might have the same chance to distil whisky as a rich man, came up.

Mr. Estes moved to refer.

Mr. French disliked the phraseology and moved to strike out the word "distil" and insert "drink." Such amendment would give the resolution as much force as it had in its present shape.

Mr. Estes' motion to refer was adopted.

The resolution of Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, that the House take a recess from the 21st of December to the 4th of January next, was next reached, and, after various attempted amendments, was adopted in its original shape.

Mr. Pou moved to reconsider the vote of yesterday, by which the bill to limit sales of bonds issued by the State, in aid of rail roads, to such sales as shall be made at par, was indefinitely postponed. He said he did not expect the bill, if reconsidered, to be passed exactly in its present shape. Future sales by the railroad corporations might be limited to 80 or 90 cents in the dollar. That amendment would be a great advantage to the State and its tax payers. The State bonds are being hawked about commercial centres at 64 and 65 cents in the dollar, to the damage of tax-payers and the depreciation of State credit. The rapid increase of the State debt presents many grave considerations. The Constitution forbids taxation on money, credits, investments in stocks, bonds, joint stock companies, and all real and personal property, beyond 66⅔ cents on the $100, of true value, per year, for State and county purposes combined.

If the State draws from these subjects of taxation 40 cents in the $100 per year, the sum of 26⅔ is left to be raised on each $100 of valuation of these subjects, and no more. The Treasurer suggests 40 cents in the $100, for taxes for the year ending Sept. 30, 1869. We may go through the present fiscal year, leaving to the County Commissioners 26⅔ cents on the $100 for county purposes,—a small rate truly, but made a necessity by our profuse liberality to Railroad Companies. But how stands the account for the next year, from October 1st, 1869, to Sept. 30th, 1870, with the present indebtedness of the State, and supposing the expenses of the State government the same as for the present fiscal year? The amount to be raised by taxation will be greater by $477,633 than it is for the present year.

And if the Chatham Railroad and the Williamston and Tarboro' Railroad fail to meet their interest, the amount to be raised by taxation will be greater for the next year by the sum of $687,333. To meet such a sum, more than 40 cents in the hundred, as property tax, would be required—perhaps even the whole of the 66⅔ cents allowed by the Constitution. Let us reconsider, then, our action of yesterday. If members here will persist in spending, on State account, the 66⅔ cents per hundred of property tax, they may see, in a few years, that their Counties cannot feed prisoners or build bridges, &c.

Mr. Downing replied and concluded by moving to indefinitely postpone Mr. Pou's motion to reconsider.

Upon that motion, Mr. Pou demanded the yeas and nays. The call was not sustained, when Mr. Downing's motion was adopted.

Mr. Welch gave notice that he would introduce a bill for the redemption of real estate.

The House then adjourned until to-morrow, 10 o'clock.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with stronger possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to imitate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever obtained. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinion of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which forms one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottle, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They were, however only to have stimulated the capacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious numskags; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a variety of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In connexion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be not only superior in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and to call upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy a great evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by them are genuine and they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest gin—the article of Best of Gin, heretofore unobtainable in the market, and may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M.D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK,
Nov. 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled article.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or hurtful admixture. I have been unable to discover any traces of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chem.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification; that it has the marks of being genuine, not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully,
FRED. F. MAYER, Chemist.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, Nov. 1.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR:—The want of pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes has been long felt by the profession, and thousands of lives have been sacrificed to the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe, owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits sold.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, including your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and from your long experience as a foreign importer, your Bottled Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the profession can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise,

We remain your obedient servants,

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite attention to the announcement of Messrs. W. D. Reynolds & Bro., Norfolk, through A. M. McPheeters, Esq., their Agent in this City. The direct trade with Liverpool is the thing for our planters, and Messrs. Reynolds & Bro. are in position to present all its advantages.

The Raleigh National Bank will pay seventy five cents on the dollar for Dividend Scrip of the North Carolina Railroad.

Photograph Albums and Prayer Books and Bibles,—suitable for Christmas presents: Williams & Lambeth, Fayetteville Street.

EASTERN WARD.—We are requested to give notice that there will be a meeting of the Eastern Ward Democratic Club, at their Club House, this (Wednesday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. A full attendance is requested. The meeting is for purposes of consultation.

THE CITY.—Our streets present a busy and bustling appearance. The Federal Court has brought a large number of strangers to our city, and the public convocations of different kinds, which are to convene here within the next month, will keep our Hotels well-crowded. Our excellent friend Blair, of the Yarborough, has a house full of guests, and they are all loud in their praises of his generous fare.

An inspection of the advertising columns of the Sentinel will show strangers in the City where to make their purchases; for of course, they all want something for themselves and something to take home to the "gude woman" and little ones.

A NEGRO MUDDLE.—There was a convocation of negroes, with here and there a scattering scallawag, at the Court House, on Monday night, for the purpose of talking over municipal matters, with a view to "loil" nominations. And there was some "talking" sure enough,—the jabber rivalling the multitudinous cawing of innumerable black crows, in full view of a corn field. "Talking" was not all, for, at one time, an indiscriminate fight between the darkeys present was imminent, which threatened an infinite amount of wool gathering. No nominations were made, but "Collards" is in the ascendant, thus far. We'll wilt Elm, some of these days.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—We are requested to announce that the Rt. Rev. James Gibbons, D. D., Bishop of North Carolina, will preach in the Catholic Church, in this City, on the 13th inst., at 10½ o'clock, A. M. The citizens are respectfully invited to attend.

REV. HENRY HARDIE.—We are pained to hear of the death of this gentleman, which sad event occurred at Mount Jackson, Va., the home of his father-in-law, on the 23rd ult. Mr. Hardie was in the 46th year of his age and had lived a life of great usefulness. Few men were better informed as to the material and industrial resources of North Carolina, and none had done more to make the world acquainted with them. As a correspondent for the Sentinel, and other papers, over the signature of "Itinerant," he portrayed graphically the capabilities of the State, and had in contemplation, at the time of his death, a book embodying the results of his investigations, which would have proven highly valuable. Mr. Hardie was an excellent Christian gentleman and we deplore his untimely death.

THE Supreme Court Judges are to be confined in the cock-loft. The carpet-baggers retain the finely furnished rooms on the lower floor of the Capitol.

IT WILL be seen, by yesterday's proceedings, that the House has resolved (the Senate concurring) to take a recess from the 21st. inst. to the 4th prox.

THE Electoral College meets to-day.

A NEGRO CONGRESSMAN.—It has already been announced that the votes of a number of parishes in Louisiana have been rejected. This result secures the election of Menard, a negro Congressman, in one of the Districts. We shall see how welcome we will be among the Congressional negrophilists.

A RARE HISTORICAL CURIOSITY.—In the month of June, 1809, a treaty of Peace was made with the Chief of the Tribes of the great and little Osage Indians, at which time the President (James Madison) was authorized by Congress to present a token of peace and friendship, which was done, in the shape of a silver medal, weighing 3 ounces and 4 penny-weights—bearing on one side the inscription of "Peace and Friendship," with the friendly grip of a savage and a military hand clasped together; above, the calumet and tomahawk are distinctly seen, and, on the other side, the profile of James Madison, with the inscription, "James Madison President of the United States, 1809." This medal was brought to this city by an old countryman and sold to a Jeweler of this place, for its value as old silver. It would be a valuable relic for lovers of antiquarian and historical curiosities.

OUR OPPONENTS, when they are engaged in a "family quarrel," usually tell the truth, if not about themselves, about each other. Hunnicutt in his wrath discourses as follows about carpet-baggers:

"These miscreant adventurers, having no character of their own to lose, and no property to tax, and no responsibilities resting on them, meanly, basely, and cowardly seek to build up a reputation with the colored people by lying, and defaming and trying to pull down the good names of gentlemen who would scorn any association with them whatever. Beggars, they seek their fortune by whining and crying for office. Producing nothing, they would suck the last drop of blood from the veins of every Virginian to fill their own empty pockets, and then, in justification of their own base acts, would filch from them that which is worth more than all the sordid wealth of the earth—their fair reputation, their good name.—These ravenous, devouring wolves in sheep's clothing, who go poking about throughout the country, whispering, writing, publishing and circulating infamous lies and slanders against the true and tried men of Virginia, merit the execration of all good men and the eternal anathemas of a just and righteous God. Their sins will find them out, and they will be brought to shame and infamy at last."

WHO EDITS THE STANDARD?—Among the editorials in Saturday morning's Standard, we find the following remarkable notice of "Thanksgiving in Commons Hall:"

"They assembled to hear a discourse from Chaplain Pepper, which answered all their expectations."

What were their expectations? From my slight acquaintance with the gentleman in question, I should think it would puzzle one to know what to expect.

"The loss of a melodeon added solemnity to the occasion." Not the melodeon itself; but, if melodeons could add to the solemnity and dignity of Commons Hall, we would suggest attaching one to the desk of almost every member.

Then "the admirable manner of Mr. Rufjess' playing was enhanced by the beautiful singing, &c." We should have supposed that the playing and singing were independent of each other, and must each stand upon their own merits. That both were admirable, however, we have no doubt.

The closing sentence, although perhaps not so faulty in construction, is really very amusing.

"We feel that we state no more than is true, when we say that, altogether, there was no concourse in America which enjoyed itself more than that which assembled in Commons Hall." We would like to ask if they danced?

Another editorial says: "Outside of the paths of temperance and virtue, there is no safety, while these vices lead surely to destruction." What vices? Temperance and virtue?

Again we ask, who edits the Standard?

Hubs—Useful Information.—No. 3.

For marketable hubs employ the best quality of North Carolina Gum. Let the butts measure fully 4 feet, 4 and 6 inches in length, and not less than 4½ inches in diameter at the small end, and from this up to 8 and 9 inches diameter.

Only one cut of small logs will answer; from large logs two lengths may be cut, however,—always observing the required measurement, and only the toughest Gum will do. Care must be taken to shave off the bark, leaving the inside or thin skin on, as a protection from sun-cracks.

White or feather Elm will also make good hubs, but the price for Gum is always 2 to 3 cts. per foot better. This material, properly prepared, will always sell readily in Northern markets at remunerating prices. Demand good.

THE PARAGUAYAN DIFFICULTIES—NOTE FROM MR. SEWARD.—The note of the Secretary of State to the Secretary of the Navy, which is herewith published, is understood to indicate the orders which have been given to General McMahon and Admiral Davis on the subject of the Paraguay difficulties:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17, 1868.

To the Hon. Gideon Welles,
Secretary of the Navy:

SIR:—A dispatch was received yesterday from Chas. A. Washburne, Esq., late United States Minister to Paraguay, which was written at Buenos Ayres on September 26 last. The dispatch shows that a controversy has been carried on for some time between him and the President of Paraguay. The merits of the controversy cannot be fully understood until a copy of the correspondence itself shall have been received, which is now daily expected.

Meantime, Mr. Washburne's dispatch conclusively shows that the situation of all foreigners, including United States citizens, in Ascunsion is greatly imperilled, and that especially Peter C. Bliss and George F. Masterman, United States citizens, lately in some way connected with the United States Legation, have suffered personal violence, and have, perhaps, been murdered. A dispatch was also received from Mr. Webb, United States Minister at Rio, in which he states that he has requested Rear Admiral Davis, commanding the South Atlantic Squadron, to send or proceed with an adequate naval force to Ascunsion to protect American citizens.

Mr. Webb is unable to inform this Department whether Admiral Davis would assume the responsibility of complying with this request without special instructions from this Government. The situation thus presented seems to me so critical that I have thought it my duty to advise the President that the Rear Admiral should proceed with an adequate force at once to Paraguay, and take such measures as may be found necessary to prevent violence to the lives and property of American citizens there, and the exercise of a sound discretion to demand and obtain prompt redress for any extreme insult or violence that may have been arbitrarily committed against the flag of the United States or their citizens.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

JOHNNY POOL'S ELECTION TOUR—HOW HE HELPED US.—It is a curious fact that in every county in this Congressional District where John Pool addressed the people, the Democratic candidates received a greatly increased vote over that of the previous election—commencing in Buncombe and ending in Cherokee.

At the next election we hope he will resume his labors among us—provided he don't roll over on to our side. One more such a visit from him would drive every Radical in this section out of that party.—Asheville News.

A Radical exchange says Bonner's trotting horse Dexter is liable to get a cabinet appointment. Really, we hope so, for certainly a good horse would be an improvement on any of the Radical asses we have yet heard mentioned in that connection.—La Crosse Democrat.

Our New York Correspondence.

A CHAPTER ON FINANCE AND WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28, 1868.

MR. EDITOR:—The excitement created, a week or two since, in Wall Street, by the "Erie Ring," has somewhat subsided. Money is easier and everything in the way of stocks comparatively quiet. Perhaps a brief explanation of how these matters are conducted would not prove wholly without interest to your readers, and yourself, at this time.

For instance, the "bears" wish to make a "run" on Erie. They form a ring which represents thousands of shares, amounting to millions of dollars at different kind of stocks. These are thrown on the market and the money received from the sales is deposited in the Banks, and certified checks obtained for the same. It is done to prevent it from being loaned out, even on call, and in the recent panic the amount thus hoarded was estimated at thirteen millions. This once accomplished, the Brokers' Board and Street are flooded with Erie, from day to day. The money, now, being securely locked in vaults, and beyond the reach of the "bulls," down goes the stock, and when to a point sufficiently low to satisfy the avaricious "bears," and to enable them to "load up" at very reduced figures, the deposits are turned loose, and up go the stocks again to the prices they ordinarily commanded, previous to the pressure upon them. These operations have been several times repeated during the past year, until Wall Street has acquired an unenviable reputation for trickery and fraud with the outside world, and, if allowed to be continued, must, eventually, seriously impair the business of the city, especially as it is the centre of the moneyed interest of the country. At present, the most respectable of all classes of Bankers and Brokers denounce those engaged in such transactions, in language too plain to be misunderstood, as rogues and plunderers. Occasionally, the ones most active in getting up a ring are made victims themselves, by holding on and spinning out the thread so fine that it snaps and leaves them minus their fortunes. In other words, they hold on too long, and lose, instead of gain, by their course, and have to succumb. When this occurs, they meet with sympathy similar to that received by Haman, when dangling from the gallows of his own erection for an honest man.

There is, however, another species of stock gambling, called "selling puts," which only deceives the parties directly engaged in it; consequently, it is not so reprehensible or odious, as the other to which we have referred. To illustrate, one hundred shares of Erie, or any other kind of stock, are bought by a party for seventy five dollars per share. A Broker, or any one else, that will sell puts, is then applied to and a bargain is made for a put for the same price, seventy-five dollars per share, for sixty days, or a greater or less time as may be agreed on, for which five hundred dollars is paid. Now, however high or low the stock may go in the sixty days, the party has the privilege, if he wishes to dispose of it, to notify the put seller and make him take it. Of course, if it advances, in the time specified, he may never hear more from it and pockets his five hundred dollars. But if it should fall, then comes the rub. It is simply stock insurance and not unlike many other similar investments; with a fair wind and smooth sea all goes well, though when the wind rises and it is lashed by the angry waves, it invariably goes to pieces, is lost, and often lets down, beyond recovery, those that rely upon it for safety.

While passing rapidly down town, quite a cold morning, a few days ago, I overtook a venerable looking man, about the ordinary size, in a suit of black and wrapped in a cloak, the collar of which was partly turned under,—showing rather negligence in dress. His hair, exposed under a silk hat somewhat worn, was perfectly white, his cheeks were full and heavy and rather sallow for health, his eyes seemed a little swollen and were gazing steadily ahead as if not seeing what was crossing their vision, nor did he seem conscious of the animated scene around him. His whole appearance was that of an old man of good feeling and respectability. Slowly and quite erect, yet his steps were not elastic, he walked along towards Wall Street, and you could read, in every movement, trouble, trouble, trouble about the almighty dollar. One million of dollars, it is said, would not more than pay his losses within a few weeks. When the market was strong and stocks were high, he sold these puts to a large number of persons, who availed themselves of the advantage they offered in the panic and notified him of their intention to deliver them, and so many thousand shares coming in to him in one day, on a tight money market, were more than himself or his banker could stand, thereby compelling a settlement, at the loss, to him, as before stated, of about a million dollars. Quite a snug little sum for one individual to lose even in the city of New York! For a young wealthy man like the Marquis of Hastings to fly through immense fortunes as well as his life, with such terrible swiftness as he did, does not seem so irrational or startling as for one to throw away money, if, as in this case, there is still much left to him, whose allotted time on earth is about to expire and whose large experience and years of discretion should have opened his eyes to the fact that he was playing with loaded dice.

The tight squeezing of Wall Street caused all kind of securities to fall. Those of the United States and States did not prove an exception, though North Carolina bonds stood up remarkably well, and, under the circumstances, gave evidences of permanent strength.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

HAVANA, Dec. 1, M.

The official reports of fighting at Delockins state that the Revolutionists lost 63 killed and many wounded. The Government lost 2 killed and 10 wounded. Many foreigners joined the volunteers now in the field. Prominent Mexicans here deny that any Mexicans are concerned in the revolution. The only foreigners, who hold prominent positions with the Revolutionists, are Dominicans.

Commerce here is flat. The merchants are preferring to store a larger portion of goods, to await the result of the revolution. They are only buying to supply immediate demands.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1, P. M.

Judge Chase has decided in several confiscation cases, sustaining Underwood's previous decisions. The decisions involve the declaration that the confiscation laws are Constitutional, and that, when there was no appearance and plea by defendants, the Admiralty side of the District Court had full jurisdiction to decree confiscation and sale.

Chase, however, desired the question to come before a full bench of the Supreme Court, by appeal on writ of error; which was granted.

Richard H. Dana, of Boston, will represent the Government in the argument to quash the Davis indictment.

General Grant, in a letter to the Mayor of Boston, accepts with thanks the hospitalities offered, but begs to be excused from public demonstration.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,50

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—each as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes its investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal" the sum of $11,731, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, lives long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

All the approved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States. For the Sentinel.

STANZAS.

[Respectfully inscribed to the memory of Mrs. Olivia G., lamented wife of Col. John W. A. Speng'r, of the Winston, N. C. Sentinel, who died in that place on the 24th ult.]

Where the grand immortal rivers
Roll their chrystal waves along,
In the Eden of the angels,
In the land of light and song,
She is standing in her beauty,
She is singing sweetest strains,
That are ever rolling onward
O'er the glory-lighted plains.

She hath passed the pearly portals,
Freed from pain forevermore;
She hath found the bliss that reigneth
On the amaranthine shore;
She hath crossed the silent river,
And attained the peaceful lands;
Beaming through the flashing star beams
She hath clasped God's loving hands.

Oh! the new and deathless glories
That are clustering round her there!
Oh! the asphodels immortal
That have wreathed her radiant hair!
Oh! the bliss that rains upon her,
Now that all her cares are done!
Oh! the rest, on angel bosoms,
That her earnest faith hath won!

Her's is freedom from all sorrow,
Her's a joy that ne'er will cease,
Her's a light that falls in splendor
From the pinions of God's peace;
And the songs of changeless sweetness
That toy raptured spirit hears,
Drown the memories forever
Of her earthly toil and tears.
